Notional catchment area for an anaerobic digestion centre producing 65,000 tonnes of food waste per year

The dark blue catchment is c.15,612 km² in area, equating to the area of the East Midlands region that would be served by a regional waste facility. No waste would be brought to the Westwood AD plant from the pale blue area incorporating Greater London after 31 December 2015.