What Northamptonshire Children in Care Forum looks for in a Social Worker

Many of us have a hard time with the one life we have and just want someone to help us through.

We just ask for someone to listen, someone trustworthy as trust is a valuable commodity in our lives.

Life is full of frightening turns, made harder by the pressures we already face. So we kindly ask for help during those times, to be there when we need you.

Sometimes we just need someone to talk to, so respect and compassion are important qualities. Other times we require help with our future; work, school, socialising.

We ask for commitment. Someone who is at least a phone call away. We don't want to sound hard but we've already dealt with neglect.

Some of us have seen the worst people have to offer and we look to you for guidance. So your hard work and pride in your work is important to us.
