The Equality Act 2010 places a ‘General Duty’ on all public bodies to have ‘Due regard’ to:

- Eliminating discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- Advancing equality of opportunity
- Fostering good relations

We do this by undertaking equality impact assessments (EqIAs) to help us understand the implications of policies and decisions on people with protected characteristics – EqIAs are our way of evidencing this.

All assessments must be published on the NCC equalities web pages. All Cabinet papers where an EqIA is relevant MUST include a link to the web page where this assessment will be published. If you require assistance in getting your EqIA published, please contact equalities@northamptonshire.gov.uk

PART 1

Description of current provision/policy and main beneficiaries/stakeholders

The Local Authority has a statutory duty to deliver Children's Centre services. This dates from the 2006 Childcare Act and subsequent guidance of 2013. The legislation requires the Local Authority to:

- o Improve the well-being of young children in their area and reduce inequalities between them
- o Make sure that early childhood services are provided in an integrated manner
- o Ensure that partners work together to commission early childhood services
- o Make arrangements for sufficient Children's Centres, so far as reasonably practical to meet local need
- o Ensure there is consultation before any significant changes are made to Children's Centre provision in the area, and
- o Consider whether early childhood services should be provided through Children's Centres in the area; and that this legislation is currently under review.

The definition of a Children's Centre in the Childcare Act 2006, as amended by the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009, is a place, or a group of places:

- a) Which is managed by or on behalf of, or under arrangements made with, an English local authority, with a view to securing that early childhood services in their area are made available in an integrated manner
- b) Through which each of the early childhood services is made available, and
- c) At which activities for young children are provided, whether by way of early years provision or otherwise.

In Northamptonshire, Children's Centre Services deliver activity at levels 2 and 3 and support Level 4 activity. This commenced in August / September 2014 followed a tendering exercise earlier that year. An award relating to this tender was not made in Corby and pre-existing arrangements were extended and maintained.

In August / September 2014 Northamptonshire Libraries and Information Service assumed lead responsibility for Level 1 (Universal) activity previously delivered by agencies responsible for Children's Centre Services.

The provision of universal children centre services supports provision the Council already commissions for parents and young children, these include:

- o The provision of 0-19 service delivered by health visitors and school nurses
- o Provision of the free entitlement to Early Years settings for delivery of childcare and education for 2,3 and 4 year olds
- o Provision of targeted children centre services in areas of higher need.

Children Centre Services are for children under 5 and their families. They are made up of a Universal element which is open to all and easily accessible, and targeted element for families requiring some support to enjoy the experience of helping their children to grow and develop to reach their best potential.

The universal children’s services offer currently delivered in libraries is as follows:

Information and Advice Service

Supplying information about a range of services, including childcare and employment support. Supporting families to access appropriate Children’s Centre and other early help services

Registration Service

Linking registration for Children’s Centre services with general participation events at the library, with library membership

Volunteer Service

Recruiting volunteers to help deliver universal services increasing the volunteer’s confidence and employability

Universal Services such as Stories, Song and Rhyme Service

Building on the existing offer of general participation events in libraries through Bounce and rhyme, Rhymetime, Story Stomp and Play and learn under 1 and under 5 events.

Description of proposal under consideration/development

Currently universal children’s services are delivered in 36 libraries across the county. Following the decision by the Council on the future delivery of library services, 21 libraries will be closed. However, some or all may be delivered as independent libraries from 31st August 2018. These discussions are still ongoing.

This decision has prompted a review of the delivery options for universal children’s services.

Data used in this Equality Impact Assessment (general population data where appropriate but each EqIA should contain information on people who use the service under consideration – if this is not applicable to your proposal then you probably do not need to do an EqIA)

Income Deprivation Affecting Children Index (IDACI) Summary for Districts/Boroughs – Daventry (District)	There are 44 Lower Super Output Areas (LSOAs) in Daventry. Of these, 1 LSOAs are amongst the top 10% most deprived in England in terms of income affecting Children and 1 fall within Decile 2 nationally. Thus, 4.5% of the LSOAs in Daventry are amongst the top 20% most deprived nationally for income affecting Children.
Feedback relating to children’s centre provision from the Review of Library Services Consultation October 2017 – January 2018	As part of the consultation on the Review of Library Services October 2017 – January 2018, respondents were asked “Using a scale of 1 to 10, with 1 being ‘No impact’ and 10 being ‘Significant impact’, if you have children under 5 years and access the universal Children’s Centre offer please tell us how much of an impact this proposal would have on you if implemented?” and “What do you think could be done to help mitigate the impact of this proposal?” Some respondents took the opportunity to provide their thoughts on the library closures rather than specifically how they would be impacted with regard to children’s centre services. However, respondents who used the services stated that they valued them, and in particular the opportunities they offer for children to socialise and also to reduce isolation amongst parents, especially new mothers. Some people expressed the view that there was little alternative provision (in particular free provision) in their area and that if they lost their universal children’s services, it would have a negative impact. The information provided as part of the universal children’s centre service offer was valued by service users and there was an appreciation in general of the importance of early years services in improving life chances and outcomes.

Initial impact
Explain your findings above	Actions identified to mitigate, advance equality or fill gaps in information
We acknowledge that any change to universal children’s centre service provision has the potential to affect women (parents), children and young people and women who are pregnant or have recently had a baby. In addition, in Daventry area, the profile of the locality, known service users and potential service users, show that change could also potentially impact upon people with disabilities/people from a BME background/people on lower incomes/people in rural areas; however, recommissioning based on need should mean those that need the services most should have access to an evidence based service to help them improve their families health and wellbeing and children’s development. The current consultation will help inform the future provision of universal children’s centre services by helping identify need and how people wish to access services in future.	A twelve week consultation will run from 23rd March to 15th June, where service users and professionals will be consulted on how they currently use universal children’s centre services where they are currently provided on library premises, and what they would like to see in the future, as well as seeking views on alternative venues.

Do you need to undertake further work (e.g. consultation, further equality analysis) based on the impact and actions identified above? If yes, set this out below and then carry out the work and complete Part 2

The consultation findings will be used to inform the future provision of universal children’s centres in those localities where they are currently provided on library premises which are due to close by September 2018. A paper will be taken to Cabinet in July 2018. This EqIA will be updated with the consultation findings.
